

Trapping the ball (All Ages)

This is another variation that can be used with “Body Dribble” or any similar warm-up activities.

As the players dribble in the identified square, call out a number such as five. Players are to stop their ball, leave it and then touch the corresponding number of balls (in this case five) with the bottom of their foot before returning to their ball.

